VOL. VIII. NO. 156. CHICAGO, TUESDAY, JULY 1, 1902. PRICE 5 CENTS

ARTICULATE'S NINTH VICTORY.

Articulate, the young St. Andrew-Utter horse, which has performed so well on local tracks this season, has become a popular idol of the second grade to Chicago racegoers. He was soundly applauded yesterday as he won his ninth successive victory at Washington Park in slushy mud that was ankle deep. He won as he usually wins, in a most impressive way. Master Lyne rode him in do-the-best-you-can style. The field wasn't much, Constellator and Martin Burke dodging, and the distance a mile and seventy yards. Naturally, Articulate was an overwhelming favorite. Yet he was heavily backed from 1 to 3 to 1 to 5. Vulcain caught some wise fancies and was stoutly backed at 1 to 2 and less for the place. More wisdom was financially sent to Benckart, the Canadian colt which Allie Gates reckoned to have a good chance because of his muddy notions. There was nothing to the race, outside of Vulcain's early attempt to take Articulate's measure. Away well, Vulcain was sent at the favorite from flagfall. He lasted just two and a half furlongs. The first quarter had been run in 26 seconds. Then Articulate shook Vulcain off and wallowed home the easiest of winners. Nothing could get near Vulcain, else he would have had trouble in landing in second place. As it was he wobbled and lurched down the stretch and was much distressed at the end. Wellesley, which headed Vulcain after his early sprinting effort for a score of strides, was third. The present Washington Park mud was evidently not to Benckart's fancy—too deep and sticky—and he landed a dismal fourth. Mr. Corrigan's handsome and beautifully-bred English mare, Semper Vigilans, could not extend herself in the going and was a gloomy last.

Sigmund, well backed by a wise few, won the opening race, a five and a half furlongs dash for two-year-olds, in a desperate drive by a head from Topsoil, which beat Rosanco the same distance for second place. Buchanan put up a powerful ride on Sigmund, fairly lifting him under the wire. Rosanco ran the best race. Off next to last, he gradually improved his position throughout and finished strongly after making up much ground. Topsoil ran to his best form. Sidney C. Love appeared unable to extend himself freely in the sticky going, and the same may be said of Glendon.

Conundrum won his second race of the meeting, beating Pyrrho a head on the post in the second race after a sharp brush all through the last sixteenth. Lyne, on Conundrum, took his mount next to the inside rail when turning for home, saving considerable ground. Pyrrho finished resolutely and would have won in a few more strides. Semicolon, which finished an indifferent third, tired palpably when the pinch came. Lovable appeared to have a chance in the last eighth, but tired badly when the last sixteenth struggle came up. If You Dare ran far below his best form and, after showing speed for a half mile, fell away badly beaten.

Lady Matchless proved to be the best of a fair field of two-year-olds in the fourth race, a five furlongs dash. She revelled in the going and the result was never in doubt, winning by one length from Belle Graham with Eva Russell a poor third. Belle Graham made a determined bid in the last eighth to overtake the winner, but gave it up in the last fifty yards and had to be content with second place. Josette, the 4 to 5 favorite, ran far below her best form and after showing a little early speed fell away hopelessly beaten.

Bragg was at his best in the fifth race, taking command at flagfall and easily maintaining it throughout the mile dash. He won under slight restraint, by two lengths, from Lacrimae, which beat Little Scout the same distance for second place. The last named ran a dull race and was thoroughly beaten, by the time the head of the stretch had been reached. Hoodwink ran well for a half mile only.

Peat romped home in the finale six lengths before

Trentham, which beat Marshal Neil one for second place. Digby Bell, which finished fourth, was the victim of a poor ride, Waldo having him hopelessly pocketed back of Marshal Neil all through the last quarter. With a better judged ride he could not have finished worse than third.

LOCAL TURF GOSSIP.

After Albert Simons had bid up Conundrum yesterday someone asked Pat Dunne why he did not buy the colt. "I had him as a yearling," said Mr. Dunne. "Dr. Corrigan, his breeder, tried to give him to me. I told him I was as full of generosity and would give him back. At that time Conundrum weighed 600 pounds and was full of vermin. But winners come from all walks and conditions of the turf.

Barney Schreiber is enamored of an extra fine bay colt by Sain, out of that fleet mare Miss Marion, and has decided to name him after his farm Woodlands, the old sire having passed away. The farm is the Dutchman's pride, and he says, "No one but me will have any home-bred racehorses next year."

Winkfield is steadily improving under Dr. Harvey's hands and his skill is likely to be used in the Dunne colors again this summer.

The selling race war, if such it can be called, still continues, and Albert Simons was again the central figure. Yesterday he bid up Conundrum, which won the second race, to $2,500. This was an advance of $1,700 over the entered selling price. Mr. Wishard, the trainer for John A. Drake, retained the horse by the customary bid of $5.

In the closing race S. W. Curtis bid Peat, the winner, up to $1,500 at which price Turney Bros. let the horse go. Albert Simons, who started Satin Coat in the race, put in a claim for Marshal Neil, securing him for $1,580.

J. C. Milam sold to Albert Simons the two-year-old colt Glendon, by Major Richards—Minnarete, just before the first race yesterday for $2,500. Had the colt won the race the purse would have gone to Simons.

Tommy Knight was fined $25 by starter Dwyer for breaking through the barrier on Lady Matchless.

Although the track yesterday was a quagmire it did not prevent the majority of the horses from running the first quarter of their respective races in 26 seconds or better.

Eva Russell stumbled at the post as the horses were about to break and unseated jockey J. Woods. She started to gallop around the track, but was caught before going a sixteenth and remounted.

Tom Kiley, who severed his connection as trainer for Fizer & Co. last week at St. Louis, was a visitor yesterday at the track.

Blessed Damozel was yesterday purchased from H. T. Griffin by Curtis and Hardy.

Jockey Buchanan had his first mount yesterday since his return to the local tracks. The report that P. Dunne had secured first call on the jockey was erroneous, as S. C. Hildreth made satisfactory arrangements for his services and Barney Schreiber, whose colt Sigmund he rode yesterday, will have second call.

IMPORTANT TO OWNERS.

The stewards of the Jockey Club took several important steps at the meeting at Sheephead Bay last Saturday. The most important action of the session was embodied in the following resolution, which was adopted without a dissenting vote:

"Resolved, That after August 2, 1902, all associations holding a race meeting within fifty miles of New York City, having racing between the first Saturday of May and the Fourth of July (both inclusive), and from the first of August to the last Saturday in October (both inclusive), shall be required to add to each overnight event an average of $1,000, with a minimum of $800, and to stakes a minimum of $1,500.

"Associations having other dates than the above shall be required to add to overnight events an average of $700, with a minimum of $800, and to stakes a minimum of $1,000, except that those associations having racing dates between the 5th of July and the first Saturday of August (both inclusive) shall be required to add to overnight events an average of $800, with a minimum of $700, and to stakes a minimum of $1,500.

"All associations shall be required to give an average of one stake for each racing day."

The application of John White for reinstatement was denied. On the recommendation of the license committee the following licenses were granted: Jockeys—John Blair, Thomas Butler, H. Callaghan, Joe Kiernan, J. Meaney, John MacCauley, John Price, William Travis, Robert Johnson, W. Nelson, Jesse Conley and William Doyle.

Trainers—E. N. Alford, W. H. Burr, George Campbell, J. C. Deakin, Thomas Digney, J. T. Donovan, Hugh Hodges, William Hayward, Jr., M. C. Kelly, John McKee, W. F. McElroy, Henry Neponneck, J. H. Stevens and M. J. Cavanagh.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

R. L. W., Chicago. Added starters cut no figure in hand book betting except to the extent they may affect the odds.

Enquirer, Chicago. Advance Guard was raced in California before being brought to Chicago.

Social Few, Chicago. You are entitled to the coupled price on Lucien Appleby.

Whale, Toronto, Ont. Your wager was a winner and should be paid.

E. T. B., Chicago. You won on Royal straight.

T. C., Chicago. Rollick was 9 to 10 to show.

SALES OF YEARLINGS.

The thoroughbred yearlings sold at Fasig & Tip-ton's Sheephead Bay paddocks Thursday, June 26, were all from Kentucky breeding farms. Charles W. Moore's Mere Hill, Hardy Durham's Horse Haven, M. D. Richardson's Springland, T. B. Jones' Caveland and Sanford C. Lyne's Larchmont Stud were represented, and, although the general average was only fair, the choice ones brought good prices.

Julius Bauer paid the top price of the day, $3,200, for the bay colt by Onondaga—Rose Lady, after considerable spirited bidding among several horse-men. This is a decidedly useful looking colt, and on this account and his breeding is liable to develop into a racehorse. Bauer also secured the bay colt by The Commoner—Lady Eon for $1,600.

H. M. Ziegler purchased half a dozen yearlings, paying $2,000 for the smart looking youngster by Deceiver—Bruna, the dam of Rockwall and Kriss Kringle. He also bought the Faraday—Safety colt for $1,900, and a bay colt by Deceiver—Hazel Land for $1,100. The summaries:

ST. LOUIS WINNERS.

The St. Louis Fair Grounds meeting, which terminated Saturday, was characterized by a large attendance throughout, and in a monetary sense probably exceeded the returns of any preceding year. During its progress $145,035 was distributed among winning owners, among whom, thanks to Otis' success in the Derby, Barney Schreiber stands easily first. Below will be found tables giving the names of the owners and horses that won $500 or more, and also the riding record of the meeting, covering all jockeys who rode two or more winners:

PLUNGE ON PEAT

was our advice to 500 subscribers Monday. We also gave them CONUNDRUM AND ARTICULATE. Tuesday Second Race at Washington Park 25 to 1 Good Thing. This one has worked fast enough to win this race easily, barring accident, will have a good rider up and we advise all clients to plunge for the limit.

FIFTH RACE 6 TO 1 SHOT. SIXTH RACE 5, 6, 7 OR 10 TO 1 SHOT.

We are sublimely confident that the above three long shots will win. They are in good form, like the track, will have good riders up and barring racing accidents all three should win in a gallop.

WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY

our information will be sensational—two long shots on tap. One trial will convince the most skeptical that what we advertise is absolutely reliable.

FORM LETTER HANDICAP ON SALE AT 9 A. M.

Also sold at Grand Pacific, Great Northern and Sherman Hotels; Kolman's cigar store, 267 Dearborn St.; cigar stand in Adams Express Building, 185 Dearborn St. and news stand north west corner Clark and Madison Sts.

 Winner—B. c, by Balgown—Kennesaw Queen (trained by G. Covington).
 Went to post at 2:30. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won with the first three driving to the limit. Sigmund, always well up, ran Mirance into submission, but along about the eighth post was joined by Topsoil and Rosanco, the three fighting it out desperately to the wire. Topsoil ran to his best form. Rosanco began slowly, but finished strongly. Gallant Smith hardly ran his race. Pageant showed early speed. Sidney C. Love got off poorly and appeared unable to extend himself in the going. Mirance ran well for a half mile.
 Scratched—32937 Pericles, 102.
 Overweights—Bernays, 4 pounds; Gallant Smith, 1; Mirance, 1.

 Winner—B. g, by Charade—Lydia Belle (trained by E. Wishard).
 Went to post at 3:10. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Conundrum was taken next to the inside rail turning for home, thus saving ground. He had to be driven hard all through the last eighth to offset Pyrrho's determined bid on the outside. The latter finished strongly and would have won in a few more strides. He closed up much ground down the last quarter. Semicolon tired in the last eighth. Lovable appeared to have a winning chance at the last eighth, but sprawled badly when the pinch came. If You Dare had enough a furlong out. L'Etrenne showed much early speed and ran If You Dare into submission. The winner, entered for $800, was run up to $2,500 by A. Simons and bid in.
 Scratched—33178 Memnon, 101; (33089) Bard Burns, 113; 32667 Brigade, 115.
 Overweights—Rag Tag, 1 pound.

 Winner—B. c, by St. Andrew—Utter (trained by R. A. Smith).
 Went to post at 3:45. Off at the first break to a good start. Won in a canter; second easily. Articulate ran to his best form and, after turning into the backstretch, gradually drew away from the field. Vulcain was easily the best of the others. He was under punishment all through the last quarter and lurched badly in the closing strides. Wellesley showed some early speed. The others were always outrun. The going was evidently too deep for Benckart.

 Winner—Br. f, by Handspring—Minty Custer (trained by C. Hellebush).
 Went to post at 4:10. At post 12 minutes. Start good. Won handily after a short drive in the last sixteenth; second easily. Lady Matchless revelled in the going, showed much speed and stood off Belle Graham's bid in the last sixteenth with gameness. The latter closed up fast in the last quarter, but hung in the closing strides. Eva Russell finished rather strongly after running at about an even clip throughout. Josette showed a flash of early speed, but fell away hopelessly beaten just after turning for home. She apparently could not extend herself at her best in the heavy, sticky going of the stretch.

 Winner—B. c, by Siddartha—Cantatrice (trained by J. Curl).
 Went to post at 4:45. Off at the first break to a good start. Won in a canter; second easily. Bragg ran to his best form, showed the most speed and was under gentle restraint all through the last quarter. Lacrimae was easily the best of the others. She was taken next to the inside rail all through the last quarter. Little Scout ran a dull race in going to his liking. He was under keen pressure all through the last quarter. Hoodwink fell away beaten after a half mile had been run.

 Went to post at 5:10. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second handily. Peat was not called on until the mile had been run, where he went to the front with ease. He is a most consistent racing tool. Trentham stood off Marshal Neil's bid in the last eighth with determination. The latter ran to his best form. Digby Bell was the victim of a weak ride, and was pocketed all through the last quarter, Waldo being of little or no help to him. The others were never serious contenders. The winner, entered for $750, was run up to $1,500 and bought by S. W. Curtis.

Winner—Br. g, by Artillery—Linda Vista (trained by J. Allen).
Went to post at 2:30. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Big Gun fenced in improved form and showed the most speed on the flat, held the lead throughout, put up a game finish and was best. Ferocious moved up fast in the last half and but for stumbling over the last hurdle, would have made a closer thing of it. Neponset finished well. Semper Ira shot his bolt at a mile and a half, when he went up to the winner, retiring shortly afterward. Herculean fenced like a novice, but showed superior speed on the flat, and but for being in a pocket in the last sixteenth, would have been an easy third.

Went to post at 3:00. At post 4 minutes. Start straggling. Won easily; second handily. Rightful, from a good start, held away throughout, drawing decisively clear of the field in the last furlong and shows steady improvement. St. Jude was unequal to beating the winner, but held the others safe on both speed and stamina. Buttons finished strongly. Clarion failed to stay in the last quarter and is evidently only moderate. Winner—Blk. g, by Loyalist—Ada B. (trained by W. Barrick).
Went to post at 3:30. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second easily. Van Ness broke flatfooted but quickly raced into the lead and easily shaking off Sweet Clover, which had attended him closely to the stretch, came away in a canter and was much the best. Sweet Clover held on well throughout under a lucky and skillful ride. Lady Radnor drew clear of the others in the last quarter. She is a very bad actor at the post. Cigar, a good looker, got away badly, closed a big gap and should improve.

Went to post at 4:00. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Hurst Park showed the way from start to finish and, apparently under pressure throughout, put up a fast and game race and ran like a stayer. Africander came on at the end with a tremendous rush. Ada Nay, running on the outside, made a wide turn, but was going very strongly at the end. Shorthorse finished fast and came from a long way back. Winner—B. c, by Kingston—Maurice (trained by J. Rowe).
Went to post at 4:30. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second handily. Port Royal broke flatfooted, but took a safe and winning lead in the first furlong, which he never relinquished, and in spite of bearing out in the stretch turn, won going away very easily and was much the best. Cunard was favored by the going and ran head and head with Pretorius to the stretch, where he outstayed the latter, drawing away strongly right at the end. Both had been driving almost throughout to keep the leader in sight. Pretorius was hardly keyed up for the journey and will improve. Grand Opera and Francesco were both trailing many lengths in the rear and made up much ground in the last quarter, especially Grand Opera, which closed an immense gap.

Scratched—33235*Morningstars, 110; 33235*Beile of Troy, 106; 33309*Kilogram, 102; (33310)*Sister Juliet, 98; 33067*Himself, 96; 33257*Keynote, 90; (33337)*Operator, 90.

Overweights—Port Royal, 1 pound; Pretorius, 3.
Port Royal, show, out. Cunard, show, 3 to 5. Pretorius, show, 1 to 3.

33359 SIXTH RACE—1 1-2 Miles. (On Turf.) $1,200 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Winner—Ch. m, by Kismet—Joiza (trained by W. Hueston).
Went to post at 5:00. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won in a canter; second driving. Fatalist practically cantered throughout, waiting on the pacemakers to the stretch, where she brushed past them as if they were anchored. Cougar was favored by the grass course and finished strongly, but was very lucky to beat Adelaide Prince. The latter was caught napping after making the pace under a choking pull. She was not keyed up for so long a journey and should improve. San Andres ran out on every turn, lost a dozen lengths and was probably second best. Bessie McCarthy evidently disliked the soggy grass course and lacked in speed and stamina. Alsike retired early.

Scratched—33210*Surmise, 106; 33285*Philippine, 104.
Fatalist, show, out. Cougar, show, 7 to 5. Adelaide Prince, show, 8 to 5. San Andres, show, 3 to 5. Bessie McCarthy, show, out.

Winner—Ch. c, by Belvidere—Madge Stuart (trained by J. Flanagan).
Went to post at 2:49. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Basileus was at home in the going, came fast in the last quarter and won without trouble. Flintlock is rounding to and ran a winning race. Dangman took matters too easy with him in the first part of the race, but closed up a lot of ground in the run home. Floret and Worthington raced each other to weariness and tired in the run home. The Common quit in the last quarter.

Scratched—33347 Trio, 106; 33347 Siphon, 103; 33294 Insolence, 101; 33344 Frivol, 101; 33273 Maz-zara, 97.
